

britneyspears 🌐 In a world 🌐 where it's okay to lock your daughter up and make her work 7 days a week ... 8:00 am to 6:00 pm ... no days off ... 105 people are in and out of a small trailer home 🏠 weekly ... No private baths 🚿 ... seen naked when changing ... drugged ... can't even speak or talk ... has to be available to the treatment people and show up every day for 10 hours a day ... if not will have to stay longer ... never given a date on when you can leave ... 9:00 pm bed every night ... like 8 gallons of blood 🩸 weekly ... this happened to me for 4 months after I worked for my dad and my family for 13 fucking years ... I gave my all when I worked only to be literally thrown away ... I was nothing more than a puppet to my family yet to the public I just performed on stage and did what I was told to do ... but it was worse than that because it was accepted and approved by the people I loved the most 💔 ... Looks are deceiving I must have it nice on vacations lol !!!! After 13 years damn straight I should go !!! I was treated less than, demoralized and embarrassed ... nobody should ever be treated the way I was The reason I bring this up is because ending the conservatorship is a huge deal but come on ... THAT'S IT ??? They all got away with it !!! If you've ever been in shock 🤯 for 4 months ... threatened for your life ... you would be upset too ... I'm not done ... I want justice and won't stop until something is done to those who harmed me ... and YES I was harmed !!!! This is a message to all who have been threatened for their life ... You are NOT ALONE !!!!
